Many Christians feel guilty that theyre not enough -- not enough for others, not enough for the Church, not enough for God. Theyve been told theyre not committed enough, loving enough, spiritual enough. Shame and guilt are the painful results. What does God really think about your heart? What if you believed your heart was already good, already holy? This book offers a way out of the shame and guilt of never good-enough. Includes stories of Christians whose church experiences left them feeling ashamed, and not good-enough.----------[See additional reviews at authors website: www.ROBBINSWRITINGS.com]
