

Atreverse implica muchas cosas: desafío, riesgo, esfuerzo. Atreverse es sonar con los ojos abiertos sin dejar de luchar hasta convertir nuestras fantasías en realidad. Atreverse es hacer uso de nuestra propia libertad, aceptando y asumiendo plenamente las consecuencias. Atreverse es arriesgarse en la vida por alcanzar lo que deseamos. Cuatro personajes de esta comedia dramática, mujeres de los 60, que se proclaman hijas de una época donde surgió una nueva sensibilidad sobre el amor, el sexo, la familia y los valores, reciben una lección de la mayor de tres generaciones, la abuela, que dice frases como punetazos: "O te subes a la vida con todos sus riesgos o solo te dejas arrastrar por ella, cómoda pero infeliz". "Nadie puede ser libre por ti, nunca lo olvides". No lo olvidan, quizá por eso deciden comenzar a transitar su propio camino sin las ataduras de ciertos mandatos ancestrales, que creían haber perdido al compás de la música de Los Beatles, pero que sin embargo están y afloran cuando menos los esperan y necesitan. "Atreverse" es una obra para la reflexión, pero también es para soltar la risa ante las peripecias de estas mujeres valientes y atrevidas, y un hombre, que al final nos emociona con un monólogo en el que hace un sentido homenaje a las mujeres de su generación.
