

The study of this quarter is an examination of prophetic literature, as well as material from the wisdom book of Job, on the subject of hope. It highlights the prophecies concerning restoration and return of the people of Israel from exile and the declarations of Job as examples of sustaining hope through communal and individual hardship and suffering. The Juniorway® Teacher Guide outlines practical ideas and instruction Sunday School leaders can use to engage students (ages 9-11) each week. Lesson plans include teaching instruction, commentary, and suggested timing for each lesson as well as comments and questions to help teachers motivate students to life application of Scripture. Scripture passages are presented in easy-to-read language. Juniors discover exciting ways to make Christianity part of their own lives. Teachers get step-by-step plans that make teaching easy. LESSON BENEFITS Answers to Special Activities: Serves as an answer key for all the fun feature activities in the Student Magazine Tips and Ideas From God: Suggests a way of enriching your Sunday School class beyond the normal weekly lessons Quarter At-A-Glance: Gives a helpful overview into what will be studied throughout the quarter Lesson Background: Explains aspects of the Bible passage and gives more in-depth analysis of the lesson In Depth: Helps the teacher understand the lesson on a more mature, personal level, beyond what they need to know to teach it to the students Daily Bible Readings: Guides Scripture reading throughout the week to support quarterly topics and principles
