

When economics graduate Henry Jameson encounters student Sally Raignford in his favourite pub disguised as a nun, he and his gifted academic friend are propelled into a frenetic struggle against an organisation which refers to itself only as the Firm. In a search for a missing father and following only a few vague clues, together they stumble into a world of shadowy figures that control everything around them. Only their unique skills can save the world from an ancient race bent on global economic collapse. With quirky characters and unexpected twists this is a fast paced and gripping adventure story leading you around the world in a race against time.
